Historical Sketch

The Christian Life Commission is a Southern Baptist Convention agency that provides scriptural analysis on current social issues and moral responsibilities of the Christian life. In 1947, the Commission, housed in the Southern Baptist Convention Building in Nashville, Tennessee, succeeded the Social Services Commission that started in 1913. In 1997, the Christian Life Commission was renamed the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission to describe its focus on religious liberty and church/state relations. Foy Valentine served as Executive Director of the Commission from 1960 to his retirement in 1987. Larry Baker succeeded him and served less than two years as Executive Director.

Scope and Content Note

The collection is divided into two series – Correspondence and Subject Files. The program directors of the CLC merged their correspondence into one common filing system. Therefore, all of their correspondence found its way into this arrangement. The correspondence relates to seminars and meetings, publications, speaking engagements, requests for publications and services, and communications with staff members of other SBC agencies. Correspondence with some individuals is located in individual folders, with most of the correspondence in a general alphabetical/chronological filing system.

The subject matter includes many of the issues related to the moral and ethical concerns of the Christian Life Commission. The issues include hunger, pornography, peace and justice, television violence and sexuality, capital punishment, homosexuality, marriage and divorce, political corruption, and other related moral concerns. The Christian Life Commission staff members included: Elmer S. West, Floyd Craig, Harry N. Hollis, C. Welton Gaddy, Lee Porter, W. David Sapp, John A. Wood, David Wilkerson, David Currie, William H. Elder, William M. Tillman, Jr., Larry Braidfoot, W. David Lockard, and Robert M. Parham.

Significant correspondence with the following individuals is included in the files: Catherine Allen, Sarah Frances Anders, Paul R. Adkins, Henlee H. Barnette, James Dunn, Walker Knight, Bob Keeshen (Captain Kangaroo), Larry McSwain, David Mace, A. C. Miller, T. B. Maston, William M. Pinson, Cecil E. Sherman, Phil Strickland, and Andrew Young.

Arrangement

The collection is divided into two series. The correspondence is arranged in chronological/ alphabetical order. The subject files are arranged in alphabetical order by folder title.
