Historical Sketch

The Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission (formerly Christian Life Commission) is an agency of the Southern Baptist Convention assigned with the task of speaking to the denomination on social and moral concerns and issues. The Commission traces its roots to the Social Services Commission, established in 1913. A.J. Barton, Hugh Brimm, A.C. Miller, Foy Valentine, Larry Baker, Richard Land, and Russell Moore have served as heads of the Commission. The ERLC is housed in the Southern Baptist Convention Building in Nashville, Tennessee.

Scope and Content Note

The CLC / ERLC Publications and Promotional Materials Collection (13 linear ft.) consists of a variety of publications and promotional items generated by the Christian Life Commission and the Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention. These materials include action and awareness guides, Bible study guides, brochures, church bulletin inserts, Emphasis Sunday materials, faith and family impact bulletins, fact sheets, pamphlets, posters, sermons, and website articles printed to paper covering a wide range of issues and topics. The collection also includes original photographs of some of the images used for the agency's brochures and posters. ERLC media reports in the collection provide information about the Commission's media activities during the 2000s. The collection covers material released by the Commission from the late 1940s through 2013.

The major topics and issues included in the CLC / ERLC publications and promotions materials collection are: abortion, AIDS, alcohol abuse, aging issues, Christian citizenship, drugs, economic issues, education, environmental issues, family, gambling, homosexuality, human rights, hunger, marriage, peace, pornography, race relations, religious liberty, sexual purity, smoking, women in church and society, and other social and moral issues. The collection consists of the following CLC / ERLC pamphlet series: Bible Speaks, Christian Lifestyle for Families, Christian Lifestyle for Youth, Critical Issues, Help for Families, Issues and Answers, and Strengthening Families. Materials about the ERLC's I Vote Values initiative, For Faith and Family radio program, Josiah Road project, Operation Rescue, and the Psalm 139 project are also included in the collection.
