Biographical Note

Sunday School Board/LifeWay Christian Resources History.

Established in Nashville, Tennessee, in 1891, LifeWay Christian Resources (formerly Sunday School Board) of the Southern Baptist Convention is one of the world's largest providers of Christian products and services, including Bibles, church literature, books, music, audio and video recordings, church supplies and Internet services through LifeWay.com. The company also owns and operates 156 LifeWay Christian Stores throughout the United States, as well as two of the largest Christian conference centers in the country.

LifeWay is a religious nonprofit organization that receives no funding from the denomination, and reinvests income above operating expenses in mission work and other ministries around the world.

Executive Office.

The head of the Sunday School Board originally had the title of Corresponding Secretary which was later changed to Executive Secretary and eventually to President. This position was appointed by the Trustees of the Sunday School Board. The Trustees of the Board were approved by the Southern Baptist Convention in annual session. The President of the Sunday School Board was responsible for the total operations of the agency. This included the publishing program, conference centers, bookstores, ministry areas, curriculum material, and relations with other Southern Baptist Convention agencies, financial operations and properties and buildings. The President of the Board reported to the Trustees and to the Southern Baptist Convention. In 1953, James L. Sullivan was named as the Executive Secretary of the Board, succeeding T. L. Holcomb.

James Lenox Sullivan.

James Sullivan was born on March 12, 1910 in Silver Creeks, Mississippi, to James Washington and Mary Ellen Sullivan. Most of his early years were spent in Mississippi and Tennessee where his father served as a Southern Baptist pastor. He attended high school in Tylertown, Mississippi, graduating in 1928. He received his B.A. degree from Mississippi College in 1932. Sullivan graduated from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1935 with a Th.M degree. Mississippi College awarded him an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree in 1948.

He was ordained as a Baptist minister in 1930. He served as pastor to several churches: Boston, Kentucky, 1932-1933; Beaver Dam, Kentucky, 1933-1938; Ripley, Tennessee, 1938-1940; Clinton, Mississippi, 1940-1942; Brookhaven, Mississippi, 1942-1946; Belmont Heights Church, Nashville, Tennessee, 1946-1950; and First Baptist Abilene, Texas, 1950-1953. In 1953, Sullivan was selected as president of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. He retired in 1975. He died in Nashville on December 27, 2004.

Sullivan was active in denominational activities, serving as a trustee and committee member for several Baptist institutions. In 1976 he was elected over five other nominees to the presidency of the Southern Baptist Convention. He declined to be considered for the customary second term for personal and health reasons.

During his tenure as president of the Convention, he became the spokesman for Southern Baptists. The presidential campaign of Jimmy Carter (a Southern Baptist) attracted a great deal of media attention on Baptist beliefs and the denomination. Sullivan conducted numerous interviews with the press during his year as president.

Sullivan is the author of numerous articles and several books. The books written by Sullivan include: Your Life and Your Church; John's Witness to Jesus; Memos for Christian Living; Reach Out; Baptist Polity; Baptist Polity as I See it; and God is My Record.

Scope Note

The collection is the official papers of James L. Sullivan and the Executive Office of the Sunday School Board from 1953 to 1975 and includes information on all aspects of the work of the Board. The papers include extensive in-house and external correspondence with Board managers, denominational leaders and workers, Baptist ministers, state Baptist Convention leaders, political figures, and church members. Some individuals included in the correspondence are: Clifton J. Allen, Robert Denny, Gaines Dobbins, Billy Graham, Brooks Hays, Herschel Hobbs, Louie Newton, M.O. Owens, Franklin Paschall, Ramsey Pollard, Adrian Rogers, Porter Routh, Arthur Rutledge, Baker James Cauthen, and George Schroeder. The papers also include extensive complaint letters relating to all areas of the Board's programs.

The information files include detailed files about the working of the Board's program. Included are minutes of staff and committee meetings; addresses and sermons; reports of all kinds; studies; budget and audit information; policy information; Baptist World Alliance material; and files on Board related controversies, including the Elliott controversy, the Broadman Bible Commentary, and the Becoming episode. The collection also deals with the issue of race relations, integration, and segregation that surfaced among Baptists in these three decades. Contained in the papers is material on bookstores, the book publishing program, clippings, files on the cooperative work with state Baptist conventions, curriculum matters, manuscripts, personnel issues, files on Trustees, and material related to the 30,000 movement. Files on various agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention are a part of the papers. Extensive files are found on the Brotherhood Commission, Executive Committee, Foreign Mission Board, Historical Commission, Home Mission Board, Inter-Agency Council, Radio and Television Commission, and the Stewardship Commission.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged in alphabetical order by folder title.
