Historical Sketch

The Sunday School Board was formed in 1891 to produce Sunday school literature and books for use by Southern Baptists. The Board took over the publication of the Kind Words series which was produced to assist in Bible teaching for children. By the early 20th century, the Board began the development of curriculum for all ages, including children.

Scope and Content Note

The Beginner Bible Story Series is a collection of publications of the Preschool Section of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The items vary from two to four pages in length and include a Bible verse, picture, and Bible story. Spanning the years 1940 – 1963, the collection includes images that are usually Bible scenes or depictions of children or family settings. Most of the items are dated for weekly use.

Arrangement

The story sheets are arranged in chronological order by year. The items within the folders are not arranged in any order.

Provenance

Some of the items were donated by Mrs. Evelyn D. Omen, 2915 Pinehurst Rd., Richmond, VA 23228. Collection transferred from Dargan Research Library in 1996.
