Biographical Sketch

Denominational executive and pastor Thomas Luther Holcomb (1882-1972) served as executive secretary-treasurer of the Baptist Sunday School Board (now LifeWay Christian Resources) from 1935-1953. During his tenure, a church music education program was started, a 12-story administration building was completed, the Ridgecrest conference center complex was expanded, and the Glorieta conference center was established.

Holcomb was born in Purvis, Mississippi, December 22, 1882, the son of William B. Holcomb, a Baptist minister, and Ada Broom Holcomb. He attended Mississippi College (B.S., 1904) and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (Theology Graduate Certificate, 1908). Honorary doctorate degrees were conferred upon him by Mississippi College, Howard Payne College, and Mercer University. Ordained in 1904, he married Willie Jenkins of Durant, Mississippi, May 8, 1910. They had two children, Luther and Louise.

Holcomb pastored several churches in Mississippi, Texas, and Oklahoma. During World War I he served as religious director for the YMCA in France. He served as executive secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas in 1928-1929. In June, 1935, he became executive secretary-treasurer of the Baptist Sunday School Board. Upon his retirement in 1953 the Board's annual budget had grown from $1,700,000 to more than $12,000,000. The day following his retirement he became executive secretary of the Southern Baptist Foundation. In 1959 he retired again, becoming associate pastor of Lakewood Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas.

Following the death of his first wife, Holcomb married Eunice King of Sherman, Texas. He died September 13, 1972. He is buried in Durant, Mississippi.
