Biographical Sketch

A sixth-generation Texan, Richard Dale Land was born November 6, 1946 in Houston, Texas. He spent his childhood and teenage years in Houston and was baptized in 1953 at South Park Baptist Church and was licensed to preach (1965) and later ordained (1969) at Townwood Baptist Church, both in Houston. Land graduated from Princeton University (A.B., 1969), New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary (Th.M., 1972), and Oxford University (D.Phil., 1980). Upon completing his doctoral studies Land served as vice president for academic affairs at Criswell College in Dallas (1980-1988) and as administrative assistant to Governor Bill Clements of Texas (1987-1988). He served as president of the SBC Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission from 1988 to 2013. Dr. Land moved the Commission to more conservative positions on social issues such as sanctity of life and homosexuality. Land was deeply involved in the Racial Reconciliation Resolution adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1995 which apologized to African Americans for Southern Baptists support of slavery and segregation. He was appointed by President George W. Bush to serve on the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom from 2005 to 2007 and served as a Senatorial appointment on the Commission from 2007 to 2011. He retired from the ERLC in 2013 after 25 years of service as President. Additional biographical information is found in the collection. The ERLC (formerly Christian Life Commission) is an agency of the Southern Baptist Convention assigned with the task of speaking to the denomination on social and moral concerns and issues.
