Historical Sketch

The Christian Life Commission (now Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission) is an agency of the Southern Baptist assigned with the task of speaking to the denomination on social and moral concerns and issues. The Commission is housed in the Southern Baptist Convention Building in Nashville, Tennessee. The Commission traces its roots to the Social Services Commission, established in 1913.

Scope and Content Note

The Commission through the years has maintained resource files on various social, moral, religious, and political issues and concerns. The Christian Life Commission has periodically transferred non-current files to the Southern Baptist Historical Library and Archives. These resource files contain a wealth of information on a wide variety of topics. They include clippings, pamphlets, brochures, newsletters, and other types of material. Most of the material is Baptist related, but include material on other denominations and secular material as well. The last series of files are related to the work, staff, and meetings of the Christian Life Commission.

The files have been maintained in their original order. They are divided into the following series:

- A. Resource files during the tenure of A.C. Miller as executive director, 1950's
- B. Resource the files during the 1960's
- C. Resource files from 1970 to 1975
- D. Resource Files from the 1970s through the 1980s (Transferred in 1990)
- E. Resource Files from the 1980s
- F. Resource Files, 1970s through 1990s

- G. Christian Life Commission Files, 1970s through 1990s
- H. Resource Files, Christian Life Commission / Ethics and Religious Liberty Commission, 1980s through 2000
- I. Resource Files, Ethics and Religious Liberty, 1980s through 2000 (transferred 2010)
