Summary

Main Entry: Southern Baptist Convention. Home Mission Board. Language Missions Department. Missionary Field Reports.

Date Span: 1961-1990

Abstract: The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention was founded in 1845 to coordinate mission efforts in the United States on behalf of the Convention. Since the early days of the Board's history they have been active in mission efforts among ethnic groups and refugees. The Language Missions Divisions supported the work of churches and missions in efforts to share the gospel with a wide range of ethnic groups. The missionary field reports document the extent of mission activities among a diverse population. The reports provide a wealth of information on missions and churches of ethnic congregations across the United States. The reports, spanning the years, 1961-1990, provide names and addresses of the ethnic mission/church leaders and statistical data on the church/missions and the amount of financial support provided by the Home Mission Board.

Historical Sketch

The Language Missions Division of the Home Mission Board (now called the North American Mission Board) was created in the 1950s to further language mission efforts in the United States. Since the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, the Board worked with various ethnic groups as immigration and urban populations increased. The changes in the cultural make-up of the American population presented a challenge to produce materials and programs that would incorporate a variety of ethnicities into the Southern Baptist Convention. Another objective of the Division was to encourage Southern Baptist leaders and members to think about ethnic groups as part of their growth plan and leadership responsibilities.

Throughout the twentieth century, the Division expanded its mission activities to include deaf missions, ethnic fellowship advocacy, ethnic leadership development, ethnic youth ministries, ethno cultural church starting, ethno linguistic church starting, immigration ministries, international seafarers' ministries, refugee, and resettlement ministries. Ethnic groups served by the Division included Arabic, Cambodian, Chinese, Filipino, Hispanic, Japanese, Korean, Laotian, Native American and Vietnamese. The division also had responsibility for mission efforts with the deaf.

Lloyd Corder served as the first Secretary of Language Missions from 1950 – 1965 and later became Associate Director, Missions Division, of the Home Mission Board. His successor, Gerald Palmer, was Secretary from 1966 – 1970, who later became Eastern Regional Coordinator for the Home Mission Board. Oscar I. Romo was the director of the Language Missions Division from 1971 until 1989 and oversaw the creation of the Language Church Extension Division that replaced the Language Missions Division in 1989. During Romo's tenure, the division produced America's Ethnicity of the Eighties, with multiple revised editions that compiled census data on American ethnic groups and reports about mission activities with them. Russell Begaye succeeded Mr. Romo, as director of the Language Church Extension Division, and published Ethnograph: Ethnic Southern Baptists at Work in 1997 that added information regarding American ethnic groups in the 1990s.

Scope and Content Note

Southern Baptist Convention. Home Mission Board. Language Division. Missionary Field Reports. The Field Report files span the period from 1961-1990, with most of the reports during the 1970s and 1980s. The mission reports document the extensive work of the Language Mission Division of the Home Mission Board for these years in the United States of Southern Baptist ethnic churches and missions. The files record the mission activity among a wide range of ethnic groups including: American Indians, Arabs, Armenians, Asians, Cambodians, Chinese, Eskimos, Ethiopians, Filipinos, French, Haitians, Hispanics, Hmong, Hungarians, Japanese, Koreans, Laotians, Multiethnic, Polish, Portuguese, Seaman, Vietnamese and other language groups. The records also include the files of Program Leaders and Catalytic missionaries.

The files include report forms, applications for support, narrative reports, church growth forms and some correspondence. The primary form used in the files in the "Pastor/Church Growth Report." This form included the following information: name and address of mission pastor or missionary, membership, baptisms, sermons given, Sunday school attendance, church income, pastor's personal report and other data on the church or mission. The reports also included information on the church/mission financial data and the amount of support provided from the Home Mission Board. The collection includes some miscellaneous reporting and application files related to other mission work of the Home Mission Board.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged in alphabetical order by ethnic group/ministry group and then by state, city, and missionary name.

Provenance
