Biographical Sketch

Brooks Hays was born August 9, 1898, in London, Arkansas, the only child of Adelbert Steele Hays and Sallie Butler Hays. He was baptized in 1909, a member of the Russellville Baptist Church in Russellville, Arkansas. In 1919, Hays graduated from the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, Arkansas, and, in 1922, from George Washington University in Washington, D.C. He also attended College of the Ozarks, Clarksville, Arkansas and Salem College, Salem, West Virginia and received honorary LLD degrees from Mercer University and William Jewel College.

Hays was employed in the United States Treasury Department from 1919 – 1922. He married Marian Prather February 2, 1922, and the couple had two children, Betty and Marion. Hays was admitted to the Arkansas Bar Association in 1922, worked as a lawyer, and was also elected secretary of the State Democratic Convention. From 1925 to 1927, Hays was the Assistant Attorney General of Arkansas, and, in 1928, he ran for governor of the state.

While working as an attorney, Hays was a civic and church leader. He served as a member of the 78th – 85th Congress from Arkansas from 1943 to 1959, working on several important committees, including the Foreign Affairs Committee. In 1947, Hays addressed the Baptist World Alliance meeting in Copenhagen, Denmark, and, in 1950, he was elected second Vice President of the Southern Baptist Convention. Hays worked as Chairman of the Christian Life Commission of the SBC from 1955 to 1957, and from 1957 to 1958, he served as President of the SBC. Hays served as special assistant to President John F. Kennedy, 1961 – 1966, and continued under President Lyndon Johnson. In 1962, Hays had audience with Pope John 23, and from 1965 to 1974, he was Director of the Ecumenical Institute at Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, N.C. His published works include This World: Christian's Workshop, A Southern Moderate Speaks, relating to the Little Rock crisis in race relations and Politics is my Parish, his autobiography.

Brooks Hays died in his home in Washington, D.C. October 12, 1981 at the age of 83.
